About Me
Learning Is My Passion
I am Niladri. I am pursuing final year B.Tech. in the department of Electronics and Communication Engg., in University of Engineering and Management Kolkata which is also known as UEMK. I am a person with a lot of enthusiasm to learn new things and I follow the motto "Live Life to the Fullest". I mainly believe that hard work really matters in our progress which also helps me as well to maintain a 9.34 cgpa till now in my B.Tech. I love to learn about digital circuits, microprocessors and other technologies as well. I feel if hardware is like our body then software is like our heart; I am also interested in coding and enjoy learning new programming languages and upgrade myself more. I have learn so many things from my college like time management ,how we respect ourselves. I am the person who always believing my self and confident about what I believe. My motto in my life was one of the inspiring quote by swami vivekananda. "Arise , Awake until you reach your goal" . I used to spent my free time to collect inspiring quotations which give relief to the mind.
